CHARITY, decent, modest, easy, kind, softens the high and

ADVERTISEMENT.

The following Compositions were intended to appear in the course of the Summer of 1809, agreeably to printed proposals, and during a long illness the Author devoted as much time as his declining state would permit, in preparing the work for publication. He had completed the whole, excepting the Christmas Hymns, to one of which (that for Evening Service) he was engaged in arranging the parts a very short time before his premature Death, which happened on the Twenty-fifth day of July in the Twenty sixth year of his Age.

His Works that are already Published consist of a small collection of Glees, two Songs one the Triumph of Africa, the other from the Lay of the Last Minstrel, four Songs in a Juvenile work entitled the Nursery Concert published by Tabart of New Bond Street London and the present publication; but these form a very small part of his Musical Compositions, perhaps at a future time another portion of them may be submitted to the inspection of an indulgent Public.

It is humbly presumed that in this place it will not be deemed improper to mention, that the unremitting attention of Saunders Bennet to his professional engagements, his filial duty and exemplary piety, may be equalled, but can never be excelled. In performing the mournful task of superintending this Publication of the works of a much loved and deeply lamented Brother, I have to acknowledge with gratitude the liberal encouragement of a respectable List of Subscribers, and the kind assistance I have received from two Scientific Gentlemen, who indulgently undertook the arrangement of the two last Hymns.

Good will to sinful Men is shewn,
And peace on Earth is giv'n,
For lo! the incarnate Saviour comes,
With messages from Heav'n.

3

Justice and grace with sweet accord,
His rising beams adorn,
Let Heav'n and Earth in concert join,
To us a Child is born.

4

Glory to God in highest strains,
In highest worlds be paid,
His Glory by our lips proclaim'd,
And by our lives display'd.

5

When shall we reach those blissful realms,
Where Christ exalted reigns,
And learn of the celestial choir,
Their own immortal strains.
